Project Profile

Comply365

Comply365, an innovative software development company, recently held an Open House at its new Beloit, WI headquarters location. The company, which relocated from Northern IL to the Ironworks Campus in downtown Beloit to accommodate its rapidly expanding mobile applications, cloud-based enterprise platforms and support center solutions, is already preparing for an expansion.

“The economics of the Ironworks, coupled with its appealing high-tech environment for employees and clients alike, is an excellent fit. We are excited about our future and look forward to contributing to the area’s emerging Information Technology cluster”, said Kerry Frank, co-founder and CEO of Comply365. As a matter of fact, Comply365 is actively hiring a variety of software design, engineering and programming positions.

Established in 2007, Comply365 is a software company that helps clients reduce costs, improve efficiencies and accelerate productivity with an easy-to-use distribution platform and mobile applications that streamline documentation, training, compliance and workflow.
